

Zero Vision

Syntax

She walked along the streets with me said " I don't know what to do "

I said " I don't guide the blind and I don't provide the clues "

I suggested that she find advice and maybe she should tap another shoulder she looked me in the eyes and said " well I don't understand, you see it's clearly stated in your face you've got that helping hand "

I said " I cannot afford to give, will you come back when you're a little older ? "

But she was ..

Zero Vision

Mental haze she looked amazed abandoned at an early age left alone to fend and fight prostituted out night trafficked from the shores of home and told her send the money back for labour

so I opened up my home that night and I destroyed that neon light told her how a London life could come at such a heavy price remembering me all the time that I was not supposed to ask for any favours

But she was ..

Zero Vision

Told me that her name was Grace

I asked her what it mean to face each and every one of them then they tried pretending then

I asked did her daddy know, is he the one who did the deal to trade he ?

I opened up the photo books and showed her how I used to look with lack and pain and innocence, my life in front with tolerance

I told her how her time would fly and not to cry about one that sold her
