

Universal Sound Of The World (your Kiss Is Sweet)

Syreeta

Sometimes it's hard to make you see
What you have planned to make might be
But I will stop to hear you now
And tell you I'm glad you're my friend
I'm thanking you for the song in the sky
Thanking you for the moon and light
I want to thank you every day
For the universal sound of the world

When I am down and out wearing a frown
You spirit lifts me up like a crown
I wonder who else in the world
Is feeling like I'm feeling now
Thank you for nature's helping hand
Thank you for letting us use your land
I want to thank you every day
For the universal sound of the world oh yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah...

You are my friend
Thank you for nature's helping hand
Thank you for letting us use your land
I want to thank you every day
For the universal sound of the world
The universal sound of the world...

Your kisses are sweet as candy...
