

Change Today

T.S.O.L.

When are they gonna let us know
What is going on?
Yeah, people lie, and so will I
And I still wonder why

I wonder why
Why people lie
I wonder why

Well, don't ask me about tomorrow
Tomorrow is just the same
Yeah, people die, and so will I
And I still wonder why

I wonder why
Why people die
I wonder why

Well, why can't they
Just tell us what will happen
They shouldn't have to lie
Well, why can't they
Just tell us what will happen
The future lies right through their eyes

Machine moves on
Until ou stop it
Yeah, you'll be unseen
You're riding atop it
You're too young to kill
But you're too old to drop it
So change today
Change today
Cause we ain't gonna obey

I wonder why
Why people die
I wonder why
