

Heart Of Stone

Tab Benoit

I'm getting worried
Lines on my face
I worry so much sometimes
Till I can't see straight

Oh, well that's alright
I'm finding out where I belong
I'll be strong as I can be
But all I can see is a heart of stone

Now you must play me
For some kind of fool
I gave you all I had
And you used me like a tool

Oh, that's alright
I'll make myself a happy home
I can keep on walking tall
'Cause I know your by the phone

With a heart of stone
If you want to be cold as ice
I'm telling you, baby
You better think about it twice

'Cause that's alright
You may find yourself all alone
Your gonna meet somebody just like you
'Cause that's so easy to do

With a heart of stone
I'll be strong as I can be, baby
'Cause all I see
Is a heart of stone
