

No One But Me

Taj Jackson

Tell me what he did to you
Does he know that he made a mistake
Girl he should of been good to you
Baby how much you gonna take
I can see that you a good girl
And I wish that I had you up in my world (oh)
So when you're ready to let him go
That's when I let my feelings show (oh whoa)
Don't run to him (oh),
Don't waste your time (your time),
Open your eyes and see that I want you in my life

Who was there for you
When he broke your heart
Who was down with you
From the very start
Put you together when you fell apart
No one but me
Who would listen when no one
Would understand
Told you you wouldn't go through this
If I was your man
Show you love and do all that he can
No one but me

Stop believing that he's gonna change
He ain't giving you what you need
All this time and he still the same
This is not where you wanna be
And he's lying, he's ain't even trying
He's running this game girl and you keep buying
I think it's time for me to do what I gotta do
And tell you that I love you girl
Don't run to him (no),
Don't waste your time (your time),
Open your eyes because I need you in my life

Who was there for you
When he broke your heart
Who was down with you
From the very start
Put you together when you fell apart
No one but me
Who would listen when no one
Would understand
Told you you wouldn't go through this
If I was your man
Show you love and do all that he can
No one but me

I can't
Watch you going through this
And I don't want
To see you cry another tear
Tell me
Is there anything I can do
You can trust that

You know I'm always here for you (oh)

I can't
Watch you going through this (no)
And I don't want
To see you cry another tear (ooh)
Tell me
Is there anything I can do
You can trust that
You know I'm always here for you
(Tell me who...)

Who was there for you
When he broke your heart
Who was down with you
From the very start
Put you together when you fell apart
No one but me (no one but me)
Who would listen when no one
Would understand
Told you you wouldn't go through this
If I was your man
Show you love and do all that he can
No one but me (yeah)

Who was there for you
When he broke your heart
Who was down with you
From the very start
Put you together when you fell apart
No one but me (no one but me)
Who would listen when no one
Would understand
Told you you wouldn't go through this
If I was your man
Show you love and do all that he can
No one but me (oh)

If I was your man
No one but me (oh oh)
