

I will come again
Watching the wheels
Turning
I said I was lost
But I think I'm learning
Ah
You can drown me in the water
And shoot me down in flames
But I will come again, ah
I've got the taste of brimstone
And you try to make me lame
I will come again, ah
I will come again
I want to believe and I want this to be real
I know
I'm still one of the clowns
But I can feel
I can feel it now
Now
You can drown me in the water
And shoot me down in flames
But I will come again, ah
I've got the taste of brimstone
And you try to make me lame
I will come again, ah
Anxiety and pain
Used to bring me down
All this guilt and blame
Made me blind
But now I see
What I have, what you are, loving soul
I am not alone
Watching the wheels
Turning
Mm
I thought I was lost
But I'm learning
I'm fine
I'm fine
And you're fine
We're fine
You can drown me in the water
And shoot me down in flames
But I will come again, ah
I've got the taste of brimstone
And you try to make me lame
I will come again, ah
You can, you can drown me in the water
And shoot me down in flames
But I will come again, ah
I've got, I've got the taste of brimstone
And you try to make me lame
