

Deadlock

Takida

I will speak of you gently, even after the fights I will speak of you gently when great evil's about to rise I will speak of y ou gently, flames appear in your eyes Speak of you gently, anot her deadlock in the night

(Fall like a soldier)

A bad mood whispers inside, fear shines through my eyes The pri de is shut in, confined It's a struggle every day, disquiet fil led with cry Wrong opinions will slowly die

But I will speak of you gently, flames appear in your eyes I wi ll speak of you gently, another deadlock in the night

(I dare you to cry)

Cowards standing small, stand up for your beliefs Respect yours elf in hard times

But I will speak of you gently, even after the fights I will sp eak of you gently when great evil's about to rise I will speak of you gently, flames appear in your eyes I will speak of you g ently, another deadlock in the night

Tonight, it's the loneliest of nights, and I'm alive, hold on t onight Growing older with the fight, find good strength and the opening to see Hold on tonight

But I will speak of you gently, even after the fights I will sp eak of you gently when great evil's about to rise I will speak
of you gently, flames appear in your eyes I will speak of you g ently, I will speak of you gently, I will speak of you gently, another deadlock in the night
