

The Burning Heart

Takida

Checking your pulse for vital signs
Letting me know if everything's right
Your behavior stings my eye
Patience runs dry
Killing me slowly with your mind
I begin to see those lies
Peaceful times has run out
Dysfunctional found

The burning heart is saving all of us
The burning heart is hopeful even though we die
The fire will not fade, not this time
And I hope we'll be alright
The burning heart is saving all of us
In time

The whitewash appears in your head
Never a straight answer said
Cowards eating me alive
Not worthy a fight

The burning heart is saving all of us
The burning heart is hopeful even though we die
The fire will not fade, not this time
And I hope we'll be alright
The burning heart is saving all of us

Love, trust, understand
You don't know what it means
I am everywhere
All this pain I see
I hate you, I do
It's not your fault, it's mine
Giving no more clues
Will you miss the ride?
