

Untouchable Pt. 2

Takida

Why I should feel this way
Why I should feel this way
Why I should feel, the same
Something I cannot say
And something I cannot say
Something I can't explain

I feel you, outside
At the edge of my life
I see you, walk by
At the edge of my sight

Why I should follow my heart
Why I should follow my heart
Why I should fall apart
Why I should follow my dreams
Why I should follow my dreams
Why I should be at peace

I feel you, outside
At the edge of my life
I see you, walk by
At the edge of my sight

I had to let you go
To the thread inside
I had to let you go
To find a way back home

I had to let you go
To the thread inside
I had to let you go
To find a way back

I've never seen a light so bright
I've never seen a light so bright
I've never seen a light so bright
I'm blinded by the light that's inside
I'm blinded by the light that's inside
I'm blinded by the light that's inside you

I'm blinded by the light that's inside
I'm blinded by the light that's inside
I'm blinded by the light that's inside you

I had to let you go
To the setting sun
I had to let you go
To find a way back home
