

Was It I?

Takida

I was barely breathin
I was fightin you in my room
My heart just keeps on bleedin
You feel so bare, you know it's way too soon

But I've tried,
And it's time to confess,
Was it I? Was it I,
Who broke you down last night?
Do you mind?
I can't find
Not a single ground
Will you give me one last try?
To be alive

Days flow into horror
Say your prayers for what it's worth
Take your last look forward
Holy visions, watch them burn

But I've tried,
And it's time to confess,
Was it I? Was it I,
Who broke you down last night?
Do you mind?
I can't find not a single ground
Will you give me one last try?

There's so much we can build on
So much to lose
It seems that everyone's tired
This is nothing I choose
Maybe tomorrow is different
I don't know how
Cause the only word in my mind is goodbye

Was it I,
Who broke you down last night?
Do you mind? I can't find
Not a single ground
Was it I? (One last try) (3x)

Was it I,
Who broke you down last night?
Do you mind? I can't find
Not a single ground
Was it I, who broke you down last night?
Do you mind? I can't find
Not a single ground
Give me one last try
To be alive
