

Jealousy

Tal

Like a growing seed, this jealousy
Knowing, make believe, she could be me
Though she's got you now, like I used to
Got me all cut up, up, up

I keep walking in circles
Wanna cut you off but I can't, though
Tried forget because my heart knows
That you're not coming back, (yeah you're not coming back)

There is one thing, I want to know
You take her places we used to go
You look at me but you got no words
Can't you tell just how much it hurts?

At the end it did not take two
I fucked it up, yeah, and I blamed you
We were one but now it's just me
All caught up in this jealousy

Can't run from the pain, I'm loving you
Addicted in my veins, addicted to
I got nothing now, you win I lose
Can't find my way out, out, out

I keep walking in circles
Wanna cut you off but I can't, though
Tried forget cause' cause my heart knows
That you're not coming back, (yeah you're never coming back)

There is one thing I want to know
You take her places we used to go
You look at me but you got no words
Can't you tell just how much it hurts?

At the end it did not take two
I fucked it up, yeah, and I blamed you
We were one but now it's just me
All caught up in this jealousy,
Jealousy
Jealousy

I got your voice on repeat in my head
Together forever, yeah that's what you said
Took back your promise and gave it to her
Every word, every word [2x]

And I said
There is one thing I want to know
You take her places we used to go
You look at me but you got no words
Can't you tell just how much it hurts?

And I said at the end it did not take two
I fucked it up, yeah, and I blamed you
We were one but now it's just me

All caught up in this jealousy,
Jealousy, jealousy, jealousy
And jealousy
Jealousy
This Jealousy
