

M.O.M.

Talisman

I'm alive, I can face another battle
I can fin'lly breathe again
I'm alive, I've diminished all the demons
Now I'm purged from all the sin

I been livin 4 the danger
& I rivaled with the best
Didn't care about the meaning
Never settled up 4 less

All the frustrations that eluded me
I've fin'lly set them free

This time 2morrow I will run away again
This road that I follow is my only friend
Empty & hollow No longer can pretend
That this time 2morrow I'm out of my own misery

Step aside, I can see past through the anger
& I might as well begin

Do u really know the secret
Am I missing that 1 clue?
Do u really know the answer
Can u see my point of view?

I'm so offended by the bed I've made
Somehow I feel betrayed
