

Shape my Sin

Tangerine Dream

I found my invisible
Your beauty burned my blood
Beneath the seventh seas
My darling settles down...

There's no one like you, in perfect shape, my sin
There's no one like you, convince the storms, my sin

Touching your lips,
Describes a fairy tale
Until these thoughts are gone
I've lost you my love

No crying here at all
The heart surrounds
Makes me feel at ease
For a moment of peace

There's no one like you, in perfect shape, my sin
Until these thoughts are fading
Ain't got no way, complaining
There's no one like you, convince the storms, my sin
Until these thoughts are fading
Ain't got no way, complaining

Now I'll set my sail inside of me
If only I felt these arms again and
Will I'll be missing it all
Darkness ain't here at all

I can't describe the fear inside
Towards insanity you
Are the one that I want
These seamless words they are gone

There's no one like you, in perfect shape, my sin
Until these thoughts are fading
Ain't got no way, complaining
There's no one like you, convince the storms, my sin
Until these thoughts are fading
Ain't got no way, complaining
