Looking for you, looking for you, let's go

When I look at you, girl
You bring love to my eyes and that ain't no surprise
I'll recall the roots, just to be by your side
I need you in my life,

Wait until the sway's past friends, girl
You should let me love you the right way
I done seen a whole lot of thing, babe
But every time I look at you I know

Ain't nobody better
Ain't nobody better than you, girl
I will do whatever
Cause ain't nobody better
Nah, ain't nobody better than you

All the stories' true, girl
If you put it on me tonight, I'mma wanna make you my wife
Don't get it confused, girl, if the cutest thing you try
You'll never leave my side

Wait until the sway's past friends, girl
You should let me love you the right way
I done seen a whole lot of thing, babe
But every time I look at you I know

Ain't nobody better than you, girl
I will do whatever
Cause ain't nobody better
Nah, ain't nobody better than you
