Divine Sweet Divide

Tanya Donelly

I have lost something On the way And I can't explain What you wouldn't Want to hear then anyway Our divine Sweet divide

So let's just gaze In the space Between your face and mine Our divine Sweet divide

Divine sweet divide Fingers touching toes tipped on the wire Across our great divide Are we shadows on the wall And that's all

And should we be as one I'm sorry I'm sorry baby That's not how it works But don't worry You worry too much

I love
I love you

Divine sweet divide Fingers touching toes tipped on the wire Across our great divide Divine sweet divide Divine sweet divide Only dreams do us part Only dreams

Only dreams do us part Only dreams
