

Razor Blades

Tapping the Vein

I am sad today
I wanna play with my razor blades
I am drowned, I'm sinking
And the truth is my choke, is my gain

But I, I could run away
I can feel it
I can feel the day
I, I could run away
I can feel it
I feel that day coming

I feel bad today
I want to play but the skies are grey
I am bound, I'm broken
And defeated, it is my new name

And I, I could run away
And I can feel it
I can feel the day
I, I could run away
I can feel it
I feel that day coming

I am sad today
I wanna play

I, I could run away
And I can feel it
I can feel the day
I, I could run away
I can feel it
I feel that day
I, I could run away
And I can feel it
I can feel the day
I, I could run away
I can feel it
I feel that day coming
