

life sucks sometimes friendships turn to lies a hatred in disguise it brings tears to my eyes I can see the truth from the neutral side in my mind confusion cripples me unto my element of control unsureness emotional times I'm just traumas etched in my mind I can see it all the time I've seen more than my share of pain and suffering I am just fine respecting something more than nothing all the time and It's time to move on emotional times I'm just fine
emotional times im just fine I have seen my faith sailing away and I have seen my faiths coming back to me I can see it
coming back to me
I can see it
I can taste it
I can live it cause i'm just fine ohh
emotional times i'm just fine
emotional times i'm just fine
