

For You

Tara MacLean

You are all I see
Sweet obsession in my soul
Fill each moment with your voice
Breathe your beauty into me
And would I die for you?
No, I live for you
You know I do
You know I do
You are all I know
Your mouth is all I taste
My breast between your lips
My tongue upon your waist
Your waist
Would I die for you?
No, I live for you
You know I do
You know I do
And though you never will be mine
I will live to know
That you have touched me
Once upon a time
You are all I am
And everything I feel
Your words are all I understand
You're not real
You're not real
And would I die for you?
Oh, I live for you
You know I do
And would I die for you?
Oh, I live for you
You know I do
You know I do, I do
You know I do
