We can laugh at it now
I don't mind all the burning daggers
Piercing me, shaping me
Turning the blade on you

I revealed my escape Sweetest mutiny, ship was sinking Deeper and deeper and deeper On top of you

Oh, how does it feel?

Now when there's no way out

You married your own Hell

Couldn't get out of your own mind

Now I have the key
Out of the downwards spiralling conspiracy
Just look at me
Just look at
Diva, Diva, Diva

When you chiselled your scene So delusional, almost got me Started to question my sanity 'cos of you

I've been tasting the salt Couldn't stand all the rats on board I walked down the plank as the curtains fell down On you

Oh, how does it feel?
Now when there's no way out
You married your own Hell
Couldn't get out of your own mind

Now I have the key
Out of the downwards spiralling conspiracy
Just look at me
Just look at
Diva, Diva, Diva
