

Hurt Me

Tarrus Riley

Huh oh
Uh oh
La dah dah dah dah
La dah dah dah dah
Dah dah

I thought you were the one
Thought that we could settle down
I was wrong (I was wrong)
Thought you were Mrs. Right
We were in paradise
But to the twinkling of the night
Changes and recently
We're not the same person
We don't speak not even fight
But clearly we're fading
But now you're breaking my heart
Feeling apart you hurt me girl
I thought that we would grow old
Boy it's so cold it's hurting so bad
And now it's making me sad
It's driving me mad you hurt me baby
How could this be?
This wasn't for keep it's hurting
Uh hey
I remember when we were inseparable girl
Nothing could come between us
Distance or time, we were so fine
Our life has become an excuse
And I can do no right
I sleep in your eyes
And now tears are falling (down)
We are not just wandering
Look at what you doing to me woman
Breaking my heart
Feeling apart you hurt me yeah
Oh yes it's driving me mad
It's making me sad it's hurting so bad
I thought that we grow old
Girl it's so cold you hurt me
Yeah

I just wanna love you
I just wanna love you (why you hurt me?)
Why you wanna hurt me bad? (why you hurt me?)
I thought we're forever (why you hurt me?)
Why you wanna hurt me bad? Baby
I just wanna love you
Really wanna love you
Why you wanna hurt me bad?
I thought you were the one
Thought that we could settle down
I was wrong (I was wrong)
Thought you were Mrs. Right
We were in paradise
But to the twinkling of the night
Changes and recently

We're not the same person
We don't speak not even fight
But clearly we're fading
But now you're breaking my heart
Feeling apart you hurt me girl
