

The Wicked

Tear Out the Heart

Inside a fucking hole
Hole
I lie myself away even through my hole today my mouth has been sown shut would shriek without forgiveness
These people are my friends
This place is on my oath
Mark my words, I will not die here
Hole up, hole up
Our time is now
Hole up
We are the wicked, we are the proud
Take a chance, make a stand
Our time is now
We are the wicked, we are the proud
Take a look around, we're not sane
Fuck what you stand for and fuck what you know
You built this all just to watch it burn
These people are my friends
This place is on my oath
Mark my words, I will not die here
Hole up, hole up
My time is now
Hole up
We are the wicked, we are the proud
Take a chance, make a stand
Our time is now
We are the wicked, we are the proud
Take a look around, we're not sane
I am your god now
Swear to me
