

How Far

Tei Shi

I am alone in this place
Don't you be fooled by these hands on me
It's a fantasy, oh, but everything is too real
Is this a part of the game?
A friendly exchange of blame, if you please
We'll talk of the things that we hate in ourselves

As if we
We'll change
And we'll change
And we'll change
And we'll change
And let's see
How far it can take us
Before it forsakes us?

It pleases you to say you're sorry when you're not
It's a dangerous slip of the tongue
If it pleases you to see me struggling
I will talk of the things that I hate in myself

As if I
I'll change
And I'll change
And I'll change
And I'll change
And let's try
How far can I take us
Before it forsakes us?

How far can I take us before it forsakes us?

Is this a part of the game?
A friendly exchange of blame, if you please
It's a fantasy, oh, but everything is too real

It pleases you to say you're sorry when you're not
It's a dangerous slip of the tongue
If it pleases you to see me struggling, I will

If it pleases you to say you're sorry, well, I'm not
It's a dangerous slip of the tongue
And if it pleases you to see me struggling, I will

I told you I was coming for you

We'll change
And we'll change
And we'll change
And we'll change
And let's...

How far it can take me before it forsakes me?
How far it can take me before it forsakes me?
How far it can take me before it forsakes me?
How far it can take me before it forsakes me?
