I don't put a smile upon your face no more
I can't make your heart shine like it did before
You don't listen to my stories anymore
You can't comfort me the way you did before

Was I too loud?, was I too bad?
Was I too open?
Was I too high?, was I too fast?
Was I too close?

I don't feel your lips like the first kiss
I'd rather run away than sit to face the truth

Was I too proud?, was I too hopeful?
Was I too needing?
Was I too crazy?, was I too long?
Was I too giving?

No matter how far, no matter how long
I will be there
