

Nothing's Burning

Télépopmusik

I did it today, I made myself say
And I take back my tears, my sight, my love
No more does your magic work
On my heart
No more will your words ever tear me apart

I know now for certain
Nothing's burning anymore

And I came strolling alone
Like your perfect girl in your perfect song
You'll forget who fixed you, in a little while

I know for certain
There's nothing burning anymore
I know now forever
Nothing's burning anymore
