

Stop Running Away

Télépopmusik

We're all searching
Time's unfolding
Trying to fill our lives with meaning

Still we're learning how to breathe amongst
The pain (And suffering)
Suffering (And suffering)
All we need (All we need)
Is peace of mind (Peace of mind)

Stop running away

Beliefs are changing
And still we're paying
Power holding
Back the people

All we need is peace of mind
All we need is peace of mind
All we need is peace of mind
All we need is peace of mind
All we need is peace
