Temples

Are you messiah?
Are you the light?
I am the one
Who brought the fight
I sold the night
To daylight saving time

I am sublime
I'm the guide
I am the one
Who made desire
I tamed the wild
Destined to your life

Exile
Words from a memory
All coming back to me
The meaning that's implied

Believe what you may
Served in a different use
Learning to play the rules again

Fool carry the wise
Are you divine?
Fool carry the wise
Are you divine?
Fool carry the wise
Are you afraid of being defined?
When you put it in context it makes sense

Oh, when you put in in context it makes sense
Oh, when you wait 'til the end then you'll be next

I am the one
I am the flood
I am the water to your blood
I've taken love
A sentence far enough

I am alive
I am the eyes
I am the virtue of the mind
I did survive
Connections to deny

Exile
Words you cannot defend
Save to the bitter end
The reasons you decide

Believe what you may
Observe with a different view
Learning to break the rules always

Fool carry the wise
Are you divine?
