

Not That Big

Temposhark

Speak to you soon...

I can't wait to come around to raise the stakes
I truly love a fight that's won before it's started; so much fun
I can't stay in case I read your inner page
Don't tell me I'm a right that's wrong
I'd better put my jeans back on

'Cause you're not big in my life
Not big in my life, not big in my life at all
And I'm not big in your life
Not big in your life, not big in your life at all

I don't ask, for everything we've done has passed
Who cares if we will meet again?
It's obvious that we're not friends
I daren't speak of what I'm wishing uselessly
My stupid vision clears to see a sugar mountain melt in me

'Cause you're not big in my life
Not big in my life, not big in my life at all
And I'm not big in your life
Not big in your life, not big in your life at all

I can cut my heart out just like you do
And I can suck the life out of it just like you do
I'm gonna pick myself up and pull myself together; never revel in recovery mode
For when commitment is a dirty word
You can't afford to ever slip or let down your guard

'Cause you're not big in my life
Not big in my life, not big in my life at all
And I'm not big in your life
Not big in your life, not big in your life at all

You're not that big, you're not that big Oh not that big, you're not that big
