

My love I shall bestow
Who says romance is dead?
Mmmm
I'm a perfectionist - a perfectionist

Nothing is more serious than pleasure
Happiness is impossible to measure
The only life worth living is leisure
Nothing is more serious than pleasure

I like a winner
Someone who knows their game
A truthful sinner
There's no rush to fan the flames
I'll let you simmer
We can stay up all night
Sit by the river
Share secrets from our lives
And we can kiss real slow
Head to head

The city lights will glow
Who says romance is dead?

Mmmm
I'm a perfectionist - a perfectionist

Nothing is more serious than pleasure
Happiness is impossible to measure
The only life worth living is leisure
Nothing is more serious than pleasure
L'amour n'est pas mort

I believe in beauty, with a little love, I believe in beauty

Mmmm
I'm a perfectionist - a perfectionist

Nothing is more serious than pleasure
Happiness is impossible to measure
The only life worth living is leisure
Nothing is more serious than pleasure

I'll never get better than this love...
