

I know you think that it's impossible.
I felt the same,
but I said it for the first time anyway.
Seems like something's standing in your way.

Baby you're not always,
not always gonna feel like you do today.

If you don't, don't say it to me.
And if you don't, don't say it to me.
I think I've said enough,
you should know that if you're not in love
It's worth a lifetime waiting for you
To say it to me.
To say it to me.

I know you thought that it was possible.
He's gone, and left
you broken for the first time, but you stayed.
You're finally out, but what's the price you paid?

'Cause baby you're not always,
not always gonna feel like you do today.

And if you don't, don't say it to me.
And if you don't, don't say it to me.
I think I've said enough,
you should know that if you're not in love
It's worth a lifetime waiting for you
To say it to me.

Say it to me,
Then you'll be a little more complete
When you open up your eyes.

If you don't, don't say it to me.
If you don't, don't say it to me.

I'll be waiting
Waiting
I'll be waiting
Waiting

And if you don't, don't say it to me.
And if you don't, don't say it to me.
I think I've said enough,
you should know that if you're not in love
It's worth a lifetime waiting for you
It's worth a lifetime waiting for you
To say it to me
To say it to me
To say it to me
