

Battlefield

Ten

Somewhere out beyond this battlefield

When the day starts to fade
And return to the night
In a flickering cadence
Like pale candlelight
It's for you
And 'only' for you

When the stars leave the sky
In celestial flight
Close their twinkling eyes
As they fade and they die
It's for you
And 'only' for you

So the night flows on
In the darkness comes soliloquy
But you can't respond
'Till the nightmares wane

Somewhere out beyond this battlefield
I'll be waiting for you
My light won't diminish
Know this stone won't yield
I will rescue you somehow

In the name of desire
As the beast that arrives
Stumbles into the fire
Though it burns him alive
It's for you
And 'only' for you

When the last in the line
Speaks the words to confide
Weaving un-whispered rhymes
Of a love deep inside
It's for you
And 'only' for you

So the night flows on
In the darkness comes soliloquy
But you can't respond
'Till the nightmares wane

Somewhere out beyond this battlefield
I'll be waiting for you
My light won't diminish
Know this stone won't yield
I will rescue you somehow, yeah

Somewhere out beyond this battlefield
I'll be waiting for you
I will rescue you somehow, yeah

Somewhere out beyond this battlefield
