

Give Me a Piece of Your Heart

Ten

Give me a piece of your heart

Does that slamming door get louder
When it shuts
Or is it still the words he says
That leave the deepest cuts
Can you live your life
Just pleasing someone else
When all the time you watch it
Turning heaven into hell

Baby don't live your life in chains
Don't make the same mistakes again

If you should feel you're all alone inside
Somebody left you feeling high and dry
Next time a lover tears your world apart
Give me a piece of your heart

Don't trigger something
That you can't see through
Those kind of things can ricochet on you
Trusting a lover is the hardest part
Give me a piece of your heart

When he tells you, don't wait up
I'm working late
You might as well prepare yourself
A parting of the ways
Learn to trust your gut
Reaction every time
Coz what it all boils down to is
You're not the hurting kind

Taking a fall this time, you're in pain
Coz after a while it's all the same

If you should feel you're all alone inside
Somebody left you feeling high and dry
Next time a lover tears your world apart
Give me a piece of your heart

Don't trigger something
That you can't see through
Those kind of things can ricochet on you
Trusting a lover is the hardest part
Give me a piece of your heart
Give me a piece of your heart

Give me a piece
Piece of your heart

Piece of your heart

Baby don't sell your soul for anything
Baby I won't let you, I won't let you down

If you should feel you're all alone inside
Somebody left you feeling high and dry
Next time a lover tears your world apart
Give me a piece of your heart

Don't trigger something
That you can't see through
These kind of things can ricochet on you
Trusting a lover is the hardest part
Give me a piece of your heart
Heart

Give me a piece of your heart
Give me a piece of your heart
Give me a piece of your heart

Piece of your heart
Just a piece of your heart
Just a piece of your heart
Oh yeah
