

It Ends This Day

Ten

I am your slave and your master
I am of steel, straight and true
I was the key to disaster
I never stopped loving you

Breathe, in my cave of wonders
Crumble to dust as your colours unwind
Cleave, tear yourself asunder
Torn in the lust of this endless riptide
"Love", yeah

Talk, talk, talking in your sleep
Caught in dreams that surface from the deep
Haunting scenes still roll and then repeat
So it ends this way
It ends this day

Walk, walk, walking through the streets
Taunting, you don't practice what you preach
Flaunting all those secrets that you keep
Oh it ends this way
It ends this day

I hear your heart beating faster
I fear the stark, shameless truth
I tear apart this Canasta
I played my cards trusting you

Breathe, in my cave of wonders
Crumble to dust as your colours unwind
Cleave, tear yourself asunder
Torn in the lust of this endless riptide
"Love", yeah

Talk, talk, talking in your sleep
Caught in dreams that surface from the deep
Haunting scenes still roll and then repeat
So it ends this way
It ends this day

Walk, walk, walking through the streets
Taunting, you don't practice what you preach
Flaunting all those secrets that you keep
Oh it ends this way
It ends this day

Talk, talk, talking in your sleep
Caught in dreams that surface from the deep
Haunting scenes still roll and then repeat
So it ends this way
It ends this day

Walk, walk, walking through the streets
Taunting, you don't practice what you preach
Flaunting all those secrets that you keep
Oh it ends this way
It ends this day
