

Jekyll and Hyde

Ten

The city lies braced
To face the violent chill
A shadow in the mist
With a mind to kill
So come on little honey
Thy kingdom has come

A scream beyond the silence
Splits the night in two
The first of many die
Amidst the twilight gloom
So come on little honey
You're dead, so don't run

The crimson images in my mind
A structured chemical design
For me not you
Duality fuelled

The clock strikes twelve
There's no escaping
Your heartbeat thunders
Pulse is racing
Sign beyond a doubt
Time is running out
Your cause is lost
Your soul forsaken
Defy the Holy Ghost
To unleash the beast inside
Believe in Jekyll and Hyde

A city cast adrift
Becomes a ship of fear
A suicidal maze
Only nightmares here
So come on little honey
The hunter has won

Condemned to slit it's wrists
The streets are wet with tears
Contorted, torn apart
Sweat with blood red smears
So come on little honey
Your life is undone

For as I snap you like a stick
Don't be afraid, I'll make it quick
It's only pain
That drives me insane

The clock strikes twelve
There's no escaping
Pulse is racing
Sign beyond a doubt
Time is running out

Your soul forsaken
Defy the Holy Ghost

Fate embraced the needle
Over needless pills
To speed up the effects
To sublime the thrill
So come on little honey
It's over and done

You tasted terror and over time
It owns your flesh condones your crimes
The king of cruel
Is nobody's fool

The clock strikes twelve
There's no escaping
Your heartbeat thunders
Pulse is racing
Sign beyond a doubt
Time is running out
Your cause is lost
Your soul forsaken
Defy the Holy Ghost

The clock strikes twelve
There's no escaping
Your heartbeat thunders
Pulse is racing
Sign beyond a doubt
Time is running out
Your cause is lost
Your soul forsaken
Defy the Holy Ghost
