

Pharaoh's Prelude: Ascension to the Afterlife

Ten

I fly up from you o men
I am not for the earth
I am for the sky
I have soared to the sky as a heron
I have kissed the sky as a falcon
I am the essence of a God
The son of a God
The messenger of a God
Behold

The faithful and loving Osiris
Has come
As the stars of Orion
The beautiful one
I have come that I may glorify Orion
My soul is a star of gold
And with him
I will traverse the sky
Forever
