You're my life, my past, my future No-one can came close to you Words are hard to summon But I've never loved a woman How I love you So completely true

There are books of lives and lovers
Mine begins and ends with you
There between the covers
Lies a love so many others
Only dream to feel
But for us it's real

So shelter me in your caress
Our love outshines the diamond
Pales the pearl
Any place without you near
Is the loneliest place in the world

Under you, my guardian angel I have built a pedestal As my soul companion There's a canyon setting you And womankind apart Deep within my heart

So shelter me in your caress
Our love has weathered storms
And still come through
But isn't that the way it is
I'm not trying to hide
What I'm feeling inside
I can't live without you
There's nowhere to hide

When the coldest steel is emptiness Without your love my life would be absurd For I can see beyond the tears To the loneliest place in the world

You are the girl who means the world to me You're the most beautiful there's ever been You have it all my love, you're all I see Oh believe in me There's no way but you darling Nothing can keep us apart

Through the years the pen is showing Every line dries hard and yet
Let the pages crumble
For as long as ink is flowing
I will never let
You have one regret

So shelter me in your caress Our love has weathered storms And still come through
But isn't that the way it is
I'm not trying to hide
What I'm feeling inside
I can't live without you
There's nowhere to hide

When the coldest steel is emptiness Without your love my life would be absurd For I can see beyond the tears To the loneliest place in the world In the world

Oh, in the world
