

Stay a While

Ten

Love burned a hole in the night
Don't be afraid to take,
This love from the embers now,
Love drew your soul to the light
Then turned way to break,
So fragile, so tender...

The morning star
Can bind the broken lance,
The sunlight echoes
But remembers,

Won't you stay till the end?
Won't you stay a while?
Play 'till the end, I can make you smile,
Won't you stay, don't pretend,
Won't you stay a while?
I used to be so unsure,
But now I need so much more...

Love brought a stone heart to life
Don't be afraid to ache,
When love hurts, it mends in time,
Love needs to romanticise,
It leads a tender chase,
Returns to the sender...

Within my heart
You'll always find a place,
So when the night falls now,
Surrender...

Won't you stay till the end?
Won't you stay a while?
Play 'till the end, I can make you smile,
Won't you stay, don't pretend,
Won't you stay a while?
I used to be so unsure,
But now I need so much more...
