The Loneliest Place In The World

You're my life, my past, my future No-one can came close to you Words are hard to summon, but I've never loved a Woman how I love you so completely true There are books of lives and lovers Mine begins and ends with you There between the covers lies a love so many others Only dream to feel but for us it's real

So shelter me in your caress Our love outshines the diamond, pales the pearl Any place without you near Is the loneliest place in the world Under you my guardian angel I have built a pedestal As my soul companion, there's a canyon setting you And womankind apart deep within my heart

So shelter me in your caress Our love has weathered storms and still come through But isn't that the way it is I'm not trying to hide what I'm feeling inside I can't live without you, there's nowhere to hide When the coldest steel is emptiness Without your love my life would be absurd For I can see beyond the tears to the loneliest place in the wo rld

You are the girl who means the world to me You're the most beautiful there's ever been You have it all my love you're all I see Oh believe in me There's no way but you darling Nothing can keep us apart Through the years the pen is showing Every line dries hard and yet Let the pages crumble, for as long as ink is flowing I will never let you have one regret.
