

To Die For

Ten

She walked in like a movie queen
Stepping from that silver screen
Everything that a man could need
Built for comfort, built for speed

Baby's body was a gun and she was loaded
Put my finger on her trigger, she exploded

I got the girl to die for, yeah
I'm diving off the edge of the world
I got the girl to die for, yeah
I'm driving on her dangerous curves
She's racing herein my mind
She tasted sweeter than wine
The message deep in her eyes
Says so much more than the words

I made a stand, now I'm first in line
Got to be there all the time
Sometimes I can't believe my eyes
Watch her move, I'm hypnotized

She walks in and everybody's eyes are roaming
She's the Cadillac that I'll be driving home in

I got the girl to die for, yeah
I'm diving off the edge of the world
I got the girl to die for, yeah
I'm driving on her dangerous curves
She's racing herein my mind
She tasted sweeter than wine
The message deep in her eyes
Says so much more than the words

I got the girl to die for, yeah
I'm diving off the edge of the world
I got the girl to die for, yeah
I'm driving on her dangerous curves
She's racing herein my mind
She tasted sweeter than wine
The message deep in her eyes
Says so much more than the words

I got the girl to die for, yeah
I'm diving off the edge of the world
I got the girl to die for, yeah
I'm driving on her dangerous curves
She's racing herein my mind
She tasted sweeter than wine
The message deep in her eyes
Says so much more than the words
Words
