

Travellers

Ten

I
I wrote a letter
That you would find
And hope you treasure
I
Again endeavour
To travel time
I can't forget her
Every minute
Awaiting to begin it
I can feel my heartbeat now
Quicken as the clock ticks down
Chasing every minute, racing from within it
I can feel my heartbeat now
Thickening my bloodstream...now

We're all travellers
Mariners
Carriers of life
Travellers tonight
We're all travellers
Mariners

Champions of light

Travellers tonight

Time
Is but a measure
Of any life
We spend together
Time
Should be a pleasure

It's not a crime
I can't regret her
Every minute
Waiting to begin it
I can feel my heartbeat now

Quicken as the clock ticks down
Chasing every minute, racing from within it

I can feel my heartbeat now
Thickening my bloodstream...now

We're all travellers
Mariners
Carriers of life
Travellers tonight
We're all travellers
Mariners
Champions of light
Travellers tonight

We're all travellers
Mariners

Carriers of life
Travellers tonight
We're all travellers
Mariners
Champions of light
Travellers tonight
