

Welcome to the Freak Show

Ten

She is a hellcat in leather
With thigh length boots
She's got a natural born armoury
Of stuff that shoots
She's got you hypnotised
As she walks on by
And you're dead
(And you're dead)

Every single thing about her
Is too hot to touch
Rocks a mini skirt
That doesn't cover up too much
She's burnin' curves and lines
Of a shot glass kind
In your head
(In your head)

Kiss and tell but you won't
For this fire is your desire
Burn in hell if you don't
Fuel the fire you made

Welcome to the freak show
It comes to your town tonight
That's right
Hello and welcome to the freak show
Setting your heart alight
If you're the kind of girl who will
Can't pretend you won't
Get up, step up and
Welcome to the freak show
Yeah

Such an immaculate lover
A doozy, the juice
There's not a man alive
She could not seduce
With stockings on her legs
That you might caress
If you beg
(If you beg)

It's too late to run for cover
Wave a white flag of truce
In the face of lacy panties man
It's just no use
You're working overtime
With the feast that climbed
Into bed
(Into bed)

Kiss and tell but you won't
For this fire is your desire

Welcome to the freak show
That's right
If you're the kind who likes to thrill
Likes to dress to kill
Get up, step up and
