

Baby Don't Believe

Tennis

I never got over childish dreaming
Guess I left my head up in the clouds
I never accepted all your reasons
Can I think it over with a hand to hold

Standing alone, standing alone, lonely wingman
I will wait in the background
Working alone, working to hold in this feeling
Give me your hand, make me a man
If you mean it

I will wait for you, baby
I will go where my body is leading
I never accepted all your reasons
So give me your hand, make me a man
In the heat of the evening

Do you remember all the trouble?
I never wanted to be seen
How it all ended in a moment
When you took my hand and let me hold it freely

Standing alone, standing alone, lonely wingman
I will wait in the background
Working alone, working to hold in this feeling
So give me your hand, make me a man
If you feel like you mean it

Happiness leaves me yearning
Tell me that you feel it too
If you see me hurting, you'll know
Happiness can leave you cold

Standing alone, standing alone, lonely wingman
I will wait in the background
Working alone, working to hold in this feeling
Give me your hand, make me a man
If you mean it

I will wait for you, baby
I will go where my body is leading
I never accepted all your reasons
So give me your hand, make me a man
In the heat of the evening

Standing alone, standing alone, lonely wingman
Working alone, working to hold in this feeling
Feeling the earth, feeling my worth and I'm reeling
Giving it up, living it up like I mean it

Standing alone, standing alone, lonely wingman
Working alone, working to hold in this feeling
Feeling the earth, feeling my worth and I'm reeling
Giving it up, living it up like I mean it
