

In The Morning I'll Be Better

Tennis

I'll write your cares away
That I might spare you pain
Let everybody say that I'm gone for you
Say you're my baby
We're sublimating

I'll write a hymn again
(I'll write a hymn again)
I'll be your woman (woman)
Keep on believing it
I brought healing
Oh, baby

I'll wrap myself around
You where we can't be found
I'll hide you from the world
'Til we're forgotten
Say you're my baby
We're sublimating

I'll write a hymn again
(I'll write a hymn again)
I'll be your woman (woman)
Keep on believing it
I brought healing
Oh, baby

In the morning, I'll be
All better, better, yeah
In the morning, I'll be
All better, better, yeah
Our bodies have betrayed us
In a million different ways
Oh, in the morning, I'll be
All better, better, yeah
