

One Thing

Tenth Avenue North

You don't really know what you need
And you've got nothing
You don't really know what you believe
And you've been broken
You don't really know what you treasure now
Till it all comes crashing down
I can see so clearly now

If I've got nothing but You
I'll still have everything I need
You're the one thing I can't lose
When I've run to the end of me
Everything I thought I lost
I found it all in You, my God
You're the one thing, one thing
One thing, one thing I need

All of the want and all the plans
I've been chasing
All of the dreams in my heart
You can take them
Cuz all of the beauty starts to fade
In a light of just one place
I can see so clearly now

If I've got nothing but You
I'll still have everything I need
You're the one thing I can't lose
When I've run to the end of me
Everything I thought I lost
I found it all in You, my God
You're the one thing, one thing
One thing

My soul will cry
This one thing I know
You will only satisfy
[x2]

If I've got nothing but You
I'll still have everything I need
You're the one thing I can't lose
When I've run to the end of me
[x2]
Everything I thought I lost
I found it all in You, my God
You're the one thing, one thing
One thing, one thing I need

The one thing I need