Don't let this sink in
Just got to shut it out
Draw the lines and cut the chord
Won't let you cross into my world

Take one more step
Just one more step
I've got to shut you out

Pathetic fake smiles
Of the plastic youth
We all know in your picture perfect world
There's some ugly f*cking truths

Take one more step
Just one More step
I've got to shut you out

Everybody's talking about this & that But I couldn't care less what they say Just when you thought you figured it out I'm laughing in your face

Kill 'em, all, kill 'em off
Got no love for the insincere
Kill 'em all, kill 'em off
One by one they disappear

No allies, I won't take the bait Won't conform, you're everything I hate No allies, I won't take the bait No more
