

Lost Our Minds

Terror

The peaceful, beautiful world that mankind was given is now a war zone of filth and greed. We are all to blame and times just keep getting worse.

Try to keep my balance.

Sharpen my mind.

They show no mercy.

Age of Destruction.

These are violent times.

Running, running for our lives, and I think we've lost our minds.

And we're running out of time.

Conflict and chaos.

Hearts turn to stone.

Why do we live this way? Running in circles.

Running for our lives.

Never look the beast in the eye.

We've lost our minds.

Out of sight, out of mind, out of time.

And I think we've lost our minds.

This world burns.

This world burns.

And it burns.

And it burns.

Feel it burn.

It burns.

And I think we've lost our minds.

And were running out of time.

And I think we've lost our minds.

Out of sight, out of mind, out of time.
