Terror

I see the cracks written all over you
Nothing here is making sense
Just another no run for cover
Won't let you get inside my head

NEVER explain yourself
They don't deserve it
NEVER fold under pressure
They set the trap for you to snap

Trying so hard to cross up my words
Always looking for a reason to make me sink
People always throwing their opinions around
But you won't get the drop on me

NEVER explain yourself
They don't deserve it
NEVER fold under the pressure
They set the trap for you to snap

You best believe they are the enemy
Setting you up to sink like stone
Hold fast
Mindset
Don't let them—
Don't let them break you
