

What I Despise

Terror

The users, The leeches. The washed up. Throw the word around and have no respect for its roots, it's you I despise.

Easy come, easy go.

I'll turn on them just like I turned on you.

I guess it's safe to say.

I'll always be the enemy.

I won't unite with what I despise.

I won't unite with what I despise.

Don't you fucking look at me, and don't you say my name.

Just because you come around here.

Doesn't make us.

One and the same.

I'm carried by the truth.

I represent the pain.

Rules are rules, fools are fools.

None of them matter to me.

I won't unite with what I despise.

I won't unite with what I despise.

I won't unite.

With what I despise.

I won't unite with what I despise.

So now I turn on them, just like I turned on you.

It's you I despise; I'll never live that way.

It's you I despise; I'll never live my life that way.
