

Interlude III

Tessa Violet

I woke up today, knowing no one really knows me
Don't know what to say
All I know is that I'm lonely
But I don't fuck around
I remove you with a cleft
But now I've put you down, I'm afraid I've nothing left

God, I want a touch of something new
Something I can keep
All I know is everything I do don't bare me no relief
Ooh, ooh

Smile button on
I bought it off the shelf
And I've been telling all my friends I've just been working on myself
Wish that I could learn to trust someone would want to put me first
But I can't deign to hope while I'm bracing for the worst

God, I want a touch of something new
Something I can keep
All I know is everything I do don't bare me no relief, mm

God, I want a piece of something new Something I can hold
All I know is holding back won't help me learn to let it go
Ooh, ooh

Ah-ah-ah-ah-ah, ah-ah, ah-ah, ah-ah-ah-ah-ah
Ah-ah-ah-ah-ah, ah-ah, ah-ah, ah-ah-ah-ah-ah
Mm, mm

I woke up today, knowing no one really knows me
Don't know what to say
All I know is that I'm lonely
