

Souvenirs sustain life
Souvenirs of flesh and bone
Waste them all for wealth and gain
When the time comes you'll know

Machinery dredge the sea
All that's left is memory

All the time they lie to me they suffocate
All the time they're suffering
So when will it end?

It breaks my heart to watch
As we rip this world we have apart

Kill for pleasure
Seven wonders of our history
Endless pleasure
Satisfaction is reality

Careful pleasure
No protection of ancestry
Guilty pleasure

Machinery dredge the sea
All that's left is memory

No, no, no, no

Machinery bled the sea
You protect this misery

Sacrifice
No
Sacrifice

Machinery dredge the sea
All that's left is memory

All the time they lie to me they suffocate
All the time they're suffering
So when will it end?
