

As the mind evolves menaces are born.
As the needles turn innocence is torn.

Wake, wake, wake.

They find all things tiring.
In time they'll find a reason to hide their devotion.

Desperate defiance,
such a complex rage inside us all.
This structured raw submission,
such a killer free to lose control.

Alliance between the cold,
and the one's we'll never know.
Alliance defined by a harsh society.

Dangerous alliance,
such defiant menaces are born.
This structured raw submission,
such reluctant innocence in torn.

Liar always. Liar, liar.
Patient, patient, patient.
Defiant.
Nascent, nascent, nascent.

Nascent, a killer is born.

Desperate defiance,
such a complex rage inside us all.
This structured raw submission,
such a killer free to lose control.
